Students need to be present at school on Wednesday and Thursday during the hours for which they have tests. Students must remain in their exams at least 50 minutes. Vehicles may be driven off campus during these two days. The study hall will be open for those who wish to remain at school between testing times. Students are not allowed in the computer lab or media center on exam days.

Final Attendance Days:

The last day of attendance for seniors not taking exams is Tuesday, May 13. Seniors taking exams will do so on Wednesday, May 14 and Thursday, May 15. The last day for 9th, 10th, and 11th grade students not taking exams is Tuesday, May 20.

CACC Students:

The last day of afternoon attendance for seniors attending CACC is Friday, May 23. All junior CACC students MUST attend afternoon classes through Tuesday, June 3. Failure to attend will put students in jeopardy of losing their second semester credit.

High School Teachers:

Study halls should be covered as usual; however, if no students arrive after a reasonable period of time, you do not need to remain in the study hall.

K-12 Teachers:

Senior REPF students will not be required to report to their assigned teachers after May 13. Juniors will be May 20.

High School Students:

Lockers must be cleaned out, books returned to teachers, and locks returned to the office by the end of the day on Friday, May 23. Students may do this during study halls or after school. Report cards will be handed out on Wednesday, May 28 at 8:15. All outstanding debts must be paid and library books, textbooks, athletic uniforms, and locks returned in order to receive your card.
